

Discussion Questions

Date: Sunday, April 18, 2010

Sermon Title: Lessons From The Desert

Scripture Passage: Exodus 3:1-10

1. If you could do anything that you ever wanted to do or if you could be anything that you ever wanted to be for God, what would you do and what would you be?
2. What keeps you from reaching your full potential for God?
3. Moses lived in the desert for 40 years. He also had a “desert” experience in his life. Can you describe a “desert” time in your life? Are you in one now?
4. What does it mean that God is continually trying to break us of our own hard self?
5. God used an ordinary “bush” (on fire) to get Moses’ attention. Has God been trying to get your attention? What is your burning bush?
6. Discuss this statement: To be outside of God’s timetable is to be outside of God’s will.
7. Do you ever have a hard time waiting on God’s timetable?
8. What are some of Moses’ excuses or reasons for why God should not use him?
9. What are some of your excuses?
10. Discuss 2 Corinthians 12:10 and its implications for us today.